Dear Jason,

Each year the Opera House presents over 100 shows and while they are all typically high quality, be they music or theater or comedy or whatever else, I rarely write a follow-up letter to the performers. Perhaps I should more often, but life gets busy.

In the case of Audiobody's recent performance at the Opera House I just had to write and tell you how much I enjoyed working with you and how much this community enjoyed having you bring your talents to our historic stage.

I'd read all your promotional materials but I was still unprepared. You and Matt, as Audiobody, presented a truly unexpected blend of comedy, music and outrageous physical humor! On that evening our audience ranged in age from 5 to 85. Audiobody simply amazed our audience, young and old. Your lighting effects brought this 100+ year old building into a new century. Everything about the show was perfect from my vantage point.

Audiobody far exceeded my expectations and helped to get the 2010 year off to a great start! We all look forward to having you back at the Opera House some day soon.

Thank you for giving our audience a night to remember.

With appreciation,

Cathy Sherrill
Managing Director
